Learning of the disappearance of your fiancé brother in the unexplored desert, you resolve to set out and discover his fate.
Knowing the bulk of your elaborate Arabian civilization far behind, your quest takes you to lost jungle cities, across mountains and seas, and even to the fabled depths of the underworld. If you are lucky enough to survive the treacherous desert journey, you must still confront the weird called Mucklun of Sihla as a deadly contest whose stakes are nothing less than your own soul.

Not luck but judgment!

Kernal Sharkey Adventure Books are a new generation of interactive fiction.
This unique and complex game system makes the choices all yours. There is no dice or roll, no lengthy rules to learn. All you need is the spark of your own
